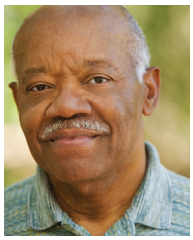
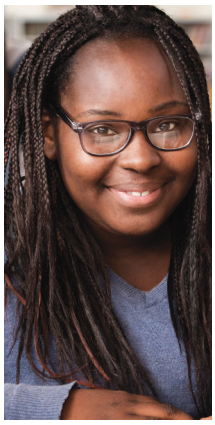
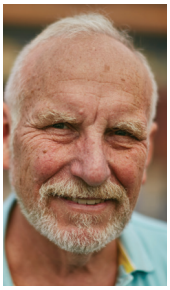
Everyone deserves high quality health care & wellness







You can help Swedish reimagine patient care to reflect specific needs of individuals and families in your community.

BECOME A SWEDISH PATIENT & FAMILY ADVISOR.

As a Patient and Family Advisor, you will be part of the Swedish Patient Family Advisory Council working alongside Swedish caregivers and leadership to enhance the patient experience by:

- Providing valuable input and feedback on projects and programs
- Advocating for wellness and wellbeing initiatives that affect families and communities
- Collaborating with others who believe that everyone deserves the best patient care

Swedish is currently seeking new advisors. Contact the Swedish Patient Family Advisory Council coordinator at pfac@swedish.org or visit www.swedish.org/pfac for more information.

Anyone who has had care at Swedish or has a family member who has had care within the last five years is eligible to apply.

We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in our health programs and activities.
