

OPEN HOUSE
Saturday, Nov. 6, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Swedish/Ballard is here for good: Good food. Good fun. Good info. Good golly.

It's party time at Swedish/Ballard. And we're planning on having lots of fun, food and freebies. So we hope to see you on Saturday, Nov. 6 – and for many years to come. Because, as we like to say, we're here for good.

Tour the ER and Medical Office Building

11 a.m. – 3 p.m. The best time to see an ER is when you're not the patient – and also when there's someone there to point out all the cool stuff to see.

Ask the Doctor

11 a.m. – 3 p.m. Have a medical question you've always wanted to ask? The family doctors from Swedish Physicians Ballard Clinic will be on hand so you can do your asking for free.

Take a Baby Bite of Ballard

11 a.m. – 3 p.m. Some of Ballard's favorite restaurants will be on hand, serving bite-sized samples of their most popular menu items.

Get a Free Soccer Scarf

Since this open house is what you'd call a "friendly," we're giving away collectible Swedish/Ballard soccer scarves to the first 200 visitors. One scarf per person, please.

Visit the Teddy Bear Clinic

11 a.m. – 3 p.m. Have your kids bring their favorite doll or stuffed animal to the new Swedish/Ballard ER, and we'll give the toys a free check-up.

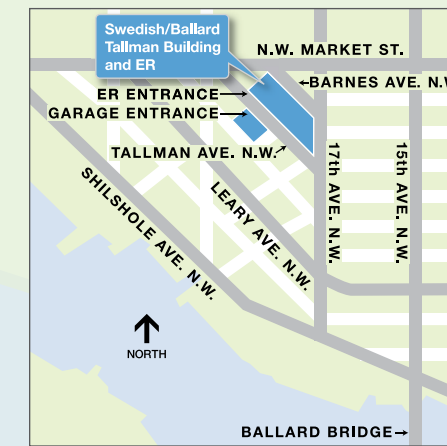

Hear Some Tunes from Caspar Babypants

1:45 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. You know him as Chris Ballew, the lead singer from the Presidents of the United States of America. Your toddlers know him as the man on the CD they want to hear over and over. Speaking of CDs, buy one after the concert, and Caspar will autograph it for you.

Park for Free

The Swedish/Ballard garage on Tallman Avenue will be open for free parking all day Saturday. Or, if you don't want to drive, take the bus. The 17, 18, 44, 46, 75 and 81 routes stop just a block away.

5350 Tallman Ave. N.W.
