

RON BERENSTAIN

Ron Berenstain has been practicing law with Perkins Coie in Seattle for more than 45 years where he has served as lead defense counsel in scores of high-stakes securities and corporate governance cases. Ron has defended public companies and large private companies and their officers and directors, as well as underwriters and accountants, in shareholder class action litigation, shareholder derivative litigation, merger and acquisition litigation, ERISA class action litigation, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission enforcement proceedings and internal investigations. Ron has extensive experience with matters involving accounting irregularities, financial restatements, disclosure regulation compliance and insider trading claims.

Ron has been recognized with many awards and recognition, including being ranked by Chambers USA as “America’s Leading Lawyer” for Commercial Litigation from 2012-2025; named Best Lawyers’ Lawyer of the Year for ERISA Litigation, named multiple times by Best Lawyers’ for Bet-the-Company Litigation, Commercial Litigation, ERISA Litigation and Merger and Acquisition Litigation; listed as a Washington Super Lawyer 2003-2025; and is a Fellow of Litigation Counsel of America.

Ron received a B.A., summa cum laude, from Claremont McKenna College and a J.D. from Yale Law School.

