

SWEDISH CANCER INSTITUTE

Video and Podcast Online Education Series

About the series

The video and podcast online education series, developed in partnership with caregivers at the Swedish Cancer Institute, offers a broad range of more than 100 short videos and podcasts on different cancers, various treatment options and advice on health topics from our medical experts.

These videos and podcasts will answer your frequently asked questions, as well as help prepare you with more specific questions for your next doctor's appointment.

To view clips on any of these topics, and more, visit Swedish.org/cancerpodcasts.

You can also access these clips on an iPad available for check-out at multiple Swedish Cancer Education Center locations (see next page). For more information, please contact the Cancer Education Center at 206-386-3200.
